

Verbal Practice, Part II

Refer to yesterday's notes if you are still confused on the three types of verbals.

In the sentences below, identify the verbal, label the type, and also identify the subject and verb.

1. The demolished car sat for the whole world to see.
2. Dancing was clearly his favorite activity, and the groom had a lot of fun at his wedding!
3. To read five books this summer would be a great accomplishment for any dedicated student!
4. When eating a cupcake, make sure you don't get icing on your nose!
5. The sputtering lawn tractor cut the grass unevenly, and I had to adjust the carburetor.
6. Bored with the TV show, my sister turned it off.
7. To see a cockroach in my classroom at night is not uncommon!
8. The finished project was left in the back of my father's car.
9. The meowing cat thought meowing was fun!
10. An exhausted classmate decided to fall asleep during class.